

STEPHANIE HELM

WINEMAKER & OWNER
THE VINTNER'S DAUGHTER

Stephanie is an accomplished winemaker, who made her first wine when she was nine and has 3 degrees, including Law, under her belt. She was running her own winery alongside her husband before she turned 30.

Lives and works in Murrumbateman, NSW, a quaint country village on the outskirts of the nation's capital famous for its exceptional wines

2015 'Up & coming Australian Riesling Winemakers'
2018 Yass Valley Business Awards 'Excellence in Small Business'

Winemaker, farmer, wife and mother to two young children

'08' ANU Alumni. LLB, BA. '20' Charles Sturt University Alumni. BWineSc. Made the Dean's list in her first & last year. 2010 Advanced Wine Assessment Graduate

Featured across national media including Triple J Hack, Sydney Weekender, Gourmet Traveller, MINDFOOD, Country Style, QantasLink magazine, 7news.

Available for speaking engagements and wine dinner events. Stephanie can discuss a range of topics from wine to small business, email winery@thevintnersdaughter.com.au to organise a talk to suit your event

Follow her day to day at @thevintnersdaughter